

Speakers

Side-event of the Wind Energy Coordination Office
Warsaw April 21, 2010, EWEC Hall 4 Room D

Latest developments on the French Wind Power Market
New rules, new challenges

Tél. +33 (0)1 40 75 36 09
Email : froding@gide.com

VERONIQUE FRÖDING

Véronique Fröding is lawyer at Gide Loyrette Nouel Law firm in Paris.

Specialised in energy law, she is regularly advising French and international investors on renewable energy projects in France, with a specific focus on onshore and offshore wind farm projects and photovoltaic installations.

Member of the Paris Bar since 1989, Véronique Fröding is active in different working groups of the French Wind Energy Association and the Wind Energy Coordination Office.

Tél : +33 (0)1 53 45 40 00
Email : fcassin@cgrlegal.eu

FABRICE CASSIN

Vice-President of France Energie Eolienne since 2009 and President of the Commission "Lois et Réglementation" of this wind energy association since 2007, Fabrice Cassin is partner of CGR Legal Law firm.

He specializes in public law, local authorities, State regulations and their relations with businesses, electricity regulations, as well as relations with administrative bodies. Fabrice Cassin stands out as a recognized expert in environmental law and renewable energies, in particular wind energy.

Doctor of Law, he is member of the Paris Bar since 1995.

Tél : +33 (0)4 32 76 03 00
Email : petit@eoleres.com

JEAN-FRANÇOIS PETIT

Researcher in aerodynamics, Jean-François Petit has a 10-years experience in the development of wind power, solar and biomass projects.

As Development Director of EOLE-RES, he coordinates the activity of the head office in Avignon and the regional agencies planning and carrying out solar, on-shore and off-shore wind projects.

He is active in different working groups of the French Wind Energy Association and Renewable Energy Association.